To whom can I report an employee who is responsible for creating a very hostile work environment with regards to open racism, posting death threats on social media, and claims to be a Nazi. The guy is literally threatening to MURDER people who get into disagreements with him!!!

This is absolutely no joke and when I say the dude is a white supremacist / Nazi, that is what he really is. Plus, he has a criminal record for assaulting women!

I thought that I would contact management before I go to Facebook and Twitter and blast this out all over the world. This guy has been working for you for a very long time and I am shocked that nothing has been done.

It is too late for that for us. We can not have you work for us anymore. I can not have that posted about me, the company or others. I work hard and do not agree with those views that I am now attached to.

We will need to get a new lawyer for the cases you are involved in and would ask treat you provide us the information and files.

Today is your last day. We will pay you through the end of the month. I am sorry, but the issues are now effecting is.

Jason I am sorry but i stand by the decision.
Clearly you made this person angry who will stop at no end to harm you and now a company bob and I have worked hard to build.
We advised you to stay off social media, yet you choose not to follow our advice.
